

Grant Award Summary 2024

Organization Name	Amount Awarded	Brief Description of Proposed Project
ArtMax Academy	$1,300.00	ArtMax Academy will purchase new daf and tombak drums to support our offering of free weekly Community Drumming classes at our studio in Beaverton.
Association of Seniors of Indian Origin (ASIO)	$2,000.00	Seniors in the community will gather to select a script, adapt for production for up to 45 minutes run, select actors for different roles, collaborate to (1) design and produce props, (2) practice their acting roles (3) book a venue, publicize event.
Bag&Baggage Productions	$2,000.00	Bag&Baggage requests support for its production of "Tartuffe" byMoliere. "Tartuffe" will be presented outdoors at the Tom Hughes Civic Plaza in Hillsboro, Oregon, for a series of 12 performances, from June 7th through June 22nd, 2023.
Beaverton Civic Theatre	$2,000.00	BCT relaunches its Young Audience Series with the musical production of Elephant & Piggie's: We Are in a Play! Accompanying the production is community outreach programming at elementary schools and the Beaverton City Library.
Beaverton Education Foundation	$5,000.00	This project gives 100-120 graduating seniors from all ten Beaverton high schools the chance to exhibit artwork, win scholarships, and be recognized for their creativity. A CCWC grant, matched by BEF, will increase access to needed art supplies.
Beaverton Symphony Orchestra	$2,000.00	A BSO/PSU collaboration: PSU music ed. students to develop a 4 level K-12 music appreciation curriculum based upon the BSO May 2024 concert to be taught in Beaverton Schools, culminating in participating students and families attending the concert.
Broadway Rose Theatre Company	$2,000.00	The BRTC Summer Technical Theatre Internship program annually offers more than 50 young people the paid opportunity to work on a professional musical theatre production under the direct supervision of seasoned industry professionals.

Grant Award Summary 2024

Organization Name	Amount Awarded	Brief Description of Proposed Project
Cedar Mill & Bethany Community Library	$2,000.00	Throughout 2024 we will host several programs that center around Indigenous history and culture. The project aligns with our values of supporting our diverse community and encouraging life-long learning.
Classical Up Close	$2,000.00	Classical Up Close will present our 2024 Chamber Music Festival in neighborhood venues all across Metro Portland. The 4-week Festival will feature 6 indoor concerts, 8 pop-ups events, and 2 children's concerts.
Cornelius Public Library	$1,920.00	Igniting the Arts with Art Socials @ the Library will attract new residents to the library to enjoy the arts and support future art opportunities.
Curvy Chic Closet Foundation	$2,000.00	Funding for our groundbreaking plus-size fashion show empowers individuals, addressing body obstacles, and promoting body positivity via show performance. We're the largest west coast plus size show, advocating for 70% of US women wearing size 16+.
Experience Theatre Project	$2,000.00	Immerse yourself in Victorian England in this classic farce by Oscar Wilde. Follow the antics of the ever pretentious Algy, John, Gwendolyn and Cecily as they keep up appearances in this ever superficial comedy about triviality and "modern" romance.
Forest Grove Community School	$1,000.00	Update and remove graffiti from current mural and make a bird instillation on the fence that surrounds the play yard.
Friends of H.A.R.T., Inc.	$2,000.00	Over the last 2 years, Friends of HART has been re-energizing our participation in the community outside of the walls of our theatre. We use funds to reach the community through special events such as holiday events & participation in Arts Walk.
Golden Road Arts	$2,000.00	In collaboration with the Hillsboro Public Library Summer Reading Program, ART IN THE PARK provides free art activities and bilingual story time in city parks.
Hillsboro Symphony Orchestra	$2,000.00	Classical Cameos is a concert of classical music pieces that are very familiar because of their use in TV and movies. Planned for March 2024
Hillsboro Tuesday Marketplace,	$1,000.00	Hillsboro Tuesday Night market will continue to support local artists & performers with inclusion in our

Grant Award Summary 2024

Organization Name	Amount Awarded	Brief Description of Proposed Project
Inc		market without cost barriers. We will also purchase display fixtures for artists to use.
Hillsboro Visual Arts Association dba Sequoia Gallery + Studios	$1,600.00	Sequoia's Hispanic Heritage Art Exhibit and Sale will provide visibility for Washington County Hispanic visual artists and their work while providing the community with an opportunity to gain deeper understanding and appreciation of Hispanic culture.
International Performing Arts	$2,000.00	We offer weekly free dance classes and complementary community performances within our community and beyond. We believe our dance program will help all areas of child development and provides a great way of supporting diversity.
ISing Choir	$2,000.00	May 2024 concerts - ISing at the Movies December 2024 Concerts - The Many Moods of Christmas
Kalakendra Limited	$2,000.00	Kalakendra will organize a grand show with over 100 local artists showcasing different classical and folk dance forms of India in collaboration with about 10 local dance schools. We will book a high school auditorium and publicize the event.
Library Foundation of Hillsboro	$2,000.00	The Library Foundation of Hillsboro proposes to select one 'Toddler Time' Storytime event per month at which one of the books being read to the toddlers will be available as a take-home/for keeps book for 50 of the in-person participants.
Mask & Mirror Community Theatre	$2,000.00	To produce two "UnMasked" series plays in 2024 which have a bold, provocative, or unconventional quality not usually produced by community theatres. We will produce nine performances of each play.
Musica Maestrale	$2,000.00	A concert of songs from the Spanish Renaissance performed by Camila Parias, soprano, and Hideki Yamaya, vihuela. Both artists are experts of this repertoire with international renown. The concert will be available to view online afterwards.
North Plains Public Library	$1,500.00	The City of North Plains requests funding for three downtown public art projects: A rotating public art display in the library, the incorporation of art into our new bus shelter, and the loan of a Five Oaks Museum display.

Grant Award Summary 2024

Organization Name	Amount Awarded	Brief Description of Proposed Project
Oregon Chorale	$2,000.00	The Emerging Voices Internship Program is an educational outreach program aimed at high school students in the Hillsboro, Beaverton, and Forest Grove school districts.
Oregon Hope Chinese School	$2,000.00	The proposed Chinese New Year festival will be held in Washington County. It is about 6 hours from 11am to 6pm, including stage performance and art crafts cultural activities for people to explore Chinese culture.
Oregon International Ballet Academy	$2,000.00	OIBA is creating a new ballet production of Cinderella choreographed by OIBA directors Ye Li and Xuan Cheng with student and a professional guest dancer to be staged at The Patricia Reser Center for the Arts in Beaverton, Oregon.
Portland Opera	$2,000.00	We are seeking support to provide free public opera performances in Washington County by Opera a la Cart, Portland Opera's mobile music venue that brings live opera into community gathering spaces and events, during summer 2024.
RASIKA SOCIETY FOR ARTS OF INDIA	$2,000.00	Rasika India Music Ensemble - RIME is the performing art wing of the Rasika Music School, for the children-youth in community. Participants will perform at cultural and community events supporting creative self-expression and cultural diversity.
Scarlet Sails Cultural Foundation	$1,667.00	Each year, the Scarlet Sails Cultural Foundation organizes traditional Christmas performances for children. These performances include theatrical presentations, sweet gifts, and celebrations around a Christmas tree.
Sherwood Public Library	$2,000.00	The program series aligns with the commitment to Support Diverse Cultural and Heritage Activities, Support Cultural Organizations and Increase Performance Opportunities because we want to host four individual heritage events to amplify diversity.
STAGES Performing Arts Youth Academy	$2,000.00	STAGES Performing Arts Youth Academy respectfully requests support for it's summer youth talent showcase and community event "Fairy Tale Idol." This event imagines what happens when fairy tale characters compete in an American Idol style competition.
Taiwanese Association of Greater Portland	$1,667.00	We will invite Taiwan Acrobatic Troupe to Portland for a performance to celebrate Taiwanese American Heritage Week (TAHW) in May next year

Grant Award Summary 2024

Organization Name	Amount Awarded	Brief Description of Proposed Project
Washington County Arts Alliance	$2,000.00	Keep 2024 Open Studios Artist Registration Fees Low Open Studios Tour is an annual free event to the public. Artist Fees have not changed since 2015 even though costs have increased. This grant will enable us to maintain the same artists fees.
Westside Community & Youth Orchestra	$2,000.00	WCYO will plan, rehearse, and perform free public concerts in 2024, with our volunteer orchestra of young student players and adults. May 3 and 10 we will play only music written by women, some living, some non-white, all challenging and exciting.
Westside Quilters Guild	$1,000.00	Grow Me a Garden Quilt Show will be held at Wingspan Event Center in Hillsboro, OR. The event will display 300 + quilts made by local quilt artists, 3 guest speakers, 4 education classes, 22 vendor booths, and Washington County Master Gardeners.

Show the Debugger Trace Report