

2025 CCWC Grantees

Organization Name	Brief Description of Proposed Project	Amount Awarded	Project Name
Association of Seniors of Indian Origin (ASIO)	Seniors in the community will reach out younger adults and provide learning opportunities via: * Arts such as sketches, painting and photography. * Field trips to bird sanctuaries, wet lands. * Talent show - singing and performing in live audience.	$2,300.00	Engage younger generation with Senior citizens at different levels via arts, science and culture.
Bag&Baggage Productions	Bag&Baggage is seeks support for the inaugural showcase of our flagship education program. H.Y.P.E. provides six months of artist training for underserved high school students in Washington County culminating in the creation an original play.	$1,250.00	Hillsboro Youth Performance Ensemble (H.Y.P.E.) Showcase
Beaverton Civic Theatre	BCT begins its 16th Season with the Young Audience Series production of Don't Let the Pigeon Drive the Bus! Accompanying the production is community outreach programming at elementary schools and the Beaverton City Library.	$2,300.00	Young Audience Series - Don't Let the Pigeon Drive the Bus
Beaverton Community Band	Beaverton Community Band, with its many musicians, will provide the music and accompanying music for Stages Theater children to perform small sketches from well-known musicals and stage productions in one or more Washington County Parks in 2025.	$2,000.00	Song and Stage in the Park.
Beaverton Symphony Orchestra	This project is the 2nd year of a collaboration between our symphony, Portland State University, and the Beaverton school district that provides enhanced music education to the Beaverton School District culminating in a Family Concert in March 2025.	$2,300.00	"The Family Experience"- bringing the joy of music to Beaverton County Families
Broadway Rose Theatre Company	The Broadway Rose Summer Technical Theatre Internship program offers young people the paid opportunity to work on a professional musical theatre production under the direct supervision of seasoned industry professionals.	$2,000.00	2025 Student Technical Internship Program

2025 CCWC Grantees

Organization Name	Brief Description of Proposed Project	Amount Awarded	Project Name
Centro Cultural del Condado de Washington	Centro seeks support for our senior adult program, Ballet Folklorico, a dance program that performs throughout the year at local cultural events while educating younger generations on the diverse regions of Mexico through dance, music and costumes.	$2,000.00	Ballet Folklorico: Latin American Folklore Ballet to Promote Heritage and Connection
Forest Grove School District, Cornelius Elementary School	We will create a large mosaic out of glass pieces signed by current and former students, staff, and community members. Names will be engraved, and the glass pieces will be assembled into a mosaic of the local landscape with Mt. Hood in the distance.	$640.00	Community Connections: Past, Present, and Future
Friends of Historic Forest Grove	Friends of Historic Forest Grove is partnering with Pacific University's Indigenous Student Alliance to build cultural discovery and programming to promote and enhance local understanding of the local indigenous life on the West Tualatin Plain.	$2,300.00	Indigenous Cultural Discovery Collaboration with Friends of Historic Forest Grove
German International School	I propose support in development of an evening Children's Choir program based at the German International School that promotes both musicianship and cultural awareness through song.	$2,300.00	Expanding the German International School's Cultural Impact Through Music
HART Theatre	HART Theatre seeks to become a Partner Venue for the Portland Fertile Ground Festival, serving as a venue rental opportunity for 10 local new work productions.	$2,300.00	Fertile Ground Festival at HART
Hillsboro Symphony Orchestra	Tour beautiful places through music. See the dramatic Hebrides Islands through Mendelssohn's eyes; Travel to the Czech Republic and cruise the Moldau with Smetana; See the ideal countryside with Beethoven's "Pastorale" Symphony #6.	$2,000.00	Place: A Musical Tour of Landscapes
ISing Choir	May 2025 Concerts - Music Out of The Americas December 2025 Concerts - To Shiver The Sky, Christopher Tin's oratorio about the history of flight, and mankind's quest to conquer the heavens	$1,500.00	ISing Choir 2025 Concert Season

2025 CCWC Grantees

Organization Name	Brief Description of Proposed Project	Amount Awarded	Project Name
Library Foundation of Hillsboro	The LFH proposes to expand StoryWalk® via the parks system of the City of Hillsboro, allowing all citizens the opportunity to experience books with multi-sensory and multi-cultural experiences.	$2,300.00	Hillsboro Public Library: StoryWalk® Expansion
Lo Nuestro Folklore of Washington County	Our annual recital has been a showcase of our participants' year-long journey of their hard work in dance. This year we'd like to shine a spotlight on community collaboration, highlighting the collective achievements and the spirit of togetherness.	$2,300.00	2025 Community Annual Performance
Mask & Mirror Community Theatre	To produce two "UnMasked" series plays in 2025 which have a bold, provocative, or unconventional quality not usually produced by community theatres. We will produce eight performances of each play.	$2,300.00	Mask & Mirror 2025 UnMasked Show Series
Nordic Northwest	Development of ten cross-cultural programs around a popular free outdoor public art exhibit, featuring Troll Ole Bolle. Creating cultural, interactive & awe-inspiring experiences centered upon trolls, folklore & immigration.	$2,000.00	Troll Ole Bolle, folklore and immigration
Orchestra Nova Northwest	ONN will offer concerts at The Reser featuring a full orchestra, illustrious guest soloists/collaborators, and the unifying character of professionally presented orchestral music that is inclusive of often under represented groups.	$2,300.00	Classical Music is for Everyone in Washington County!
Oregon Hope Chinese School	2025 Chinese New Year festival will be about 6 hours from 11am to 6pm, including stage performance, dragon dance, lion dance, Wushu, Taichi, Guzheng (Chinese string instrument), folk dance tryout, and art crafts cultural activities for participants.	$3,000.00	2025 Chinese New Year Festival
Oregon International Ballet Academy	OIBA offers their Spring production at the Reser Center for the Arts in Beaverton on June 14 and 15, 2025, performing the ballet classic Sleeping Beauty and an original ballet by Ye Li, with additional outreach performances in the community.	$2,000.00	OIBA Spring Production: Sleeping Beauty and an original ballet by Ye Li

2025 CCWC Grantees

Organization Name	Brief Description of Proposed Project	Amount Awarded	Project Name
Oregon Origins Project	Oregon Origins Project VI: The Birth of Cascadia is a new string orchestra work by Matthew Packwood depicting Oregon's geologic history with projected images of new visual art works by leading Oregon artists, followed by a multimedia geology talk.	$1,500.00	Oregon Origins Project VI: The Birth of Cascadia
Painted Sky Inc.	Painted Sky Northstar & Evening Star Painted Ponies participates every year in the Celebration Parade ... includes full dressed out Pony/Wagon and Northstar Dancers in community connecting.	$1,250.00	Beaverton Celebration Parade 2025
Portland Chamber Orchestra	The Portland Chamber Orchestra, in collaboration with Science on Tap and Dr. Larry Sherman, will present a musical and scientific lecture and performance at The Reser on February 14, 2025 about how the brain responds to love and music.	$2,300.00	Every Brain Needs (love) Music
Portland Nordic Chorus	Our Spring concert will present 1.5 hours of music and cultural information in concert format to a general audience. Music will mix traditional and modern Nordic choral pieces for 4-8 parts and will be sung in all 5 Nordic languages.	$2,300.00	Spring Concert 2025
Portland Youth Philharmonic	PYP presents three cross-cultural concerts in Washington County in 2025. Pianist Llewellyn Sanchez-Werner opens in January, followed by two performances featuring world premieres by Persian composers in collaboration with ArtMax Academy in May.	$1,000.00	PYP brings a cross-cultural musical experience to Washington County
Rasika Society for Arts of India	Over the years Rasika has been recognizing our connect with many South Asian immigrant communities. The project 'Shadows from Within', involves celebrating the unique cultures of local South Asian communities, with a collaborative performance.	$2,300.00	Shadows from Within: South Asian Performance
The FLIP Museum	With the aim of celebrating, educating and facilitating a connection with Korean culture, our exhibit will feature artifacts, arts and crafts, traditional	$2,300.00	Exploring Korean Culture: An Exhibit for all Ages

2025 CCWC Grantees

Organization Name	Brief Description of Proposed Project	Amount Awarded	Project Name
	games, performances of folktales and customs, a traditional house display, and a folk village.
Theatre in the Grove	This grant will be used to provide theatre (acting, set design & construction) camp scholarships for underprivileged and culturally diverse local area students with a financial need.	$2,300.00	Fund Acting Camp Scholarships for Underprivileged and Culturally Diverse Students
Tualatin Valley Artists 501(c)(3) dba Influence Music Hall	We request Community Cultural Participation Grant funds to cover the cost of music licensing, print and website expenses in support of our continuing commitment to produce engaging live music performance at Hillsboro First Tuesday Art Walk.	$1,788.00	Funding for Hillsboro First Tuesday Art Walk music licensing, print, and website annual expenses.
Unified Performers	The 2025 Unified Performers Spring Production will provide students of all backgrounds with the opportunity to be heard onstage in an original production about a topic facing today's teens.	$1,250.00	Unified Performers 2025 Spring Production
West Union Community Club	West Union historically has offered students four art projects each year despite our limited budget. This year, we are proud to apply for the CCWC Grant so we can offer students an enhanced art program with opportunities to showcase their work.	$1,250.00	Art Literacy Program at West Union Elementary School
Westside Community & Youth Orchestra	Raise awareness of WCYO among our key constituents - young and adult players via their teachers, audiences via various marketing tools, and donors. Reach more of our community through outreach, marketing, and free summer workshop programs.	$2,300.00	Expanding: Awareness, Audience, Student Players, Donors

Show the Debugger Trace Report